

Got Pride?

It's time we all said, "Know gays aloud!" We live in queer times. Out is in! And civil rights -- give 'em to one group and soon you've gotta give 'em to EVERYONE. If God had wanted gay marriage she would have created love. Love...that's SO gay! Gay unions as a compromise?! Remember "Separate but equal?" Been there done that. There are some things we all know: Non-nuclear arms are also for hugging. One nuclear family can ruin your whole life. Family is a family value. Queens aren't chosen they're born. And, closets are for clothes (really fabulous clothes). Is it time to institutionalize homosexuals and support gay marriage? Who's destroying whose marriages? Heterosexuals can halve marriage for themselves. Fix marriage, not gays. Equality - just due it. Gay marriage - just duet!
